Avignon University

Avignon University is one of the oldest universities in France. Founded in 1303, it was abolished during the French Revolution in 1793 and became a full university again in 1984.

It is multidisciplinary and on a human scale, with 7,500 students and 700 staff. It offers more than a hundred courses spread over two campuses.

Hannah Arendt, the main campus, is located in the heart of the city centre, while Jean-Henri Fabre, the science and technology campus, is located on the Agroparc technology park.

Before you leave

●
You must have applied for a course on the ETUDES EN FRANCE platform and have been accepted by Avignon University.

●
Once you have been accepted, you must apply for a student visa.

●
Only for students from outside the European Union (EU)

Copy of your up-to-date vaccination certificate or a medical certificate stating vaccination dates.

DEADLINES

You won't be able to enrol at the University if you arrive after the beginning of October, because courses start in September, and continuous assessment means that exams can be taken at any time during the semester, and being too late means that you'll miss assessments.

Choice of courses, marking system and exams

Choose your courses

Visit the Avignon University institutional website:

UNIV-AVIGNON.FR

Click on Courses then Syllabus. Degrees are listed by field of study.

The detailed list of courses can be found by clicking on the Syllabus tab.

After your administrative registration, you will need to complete your pedagogical registration

The normal workload for a full-time student, whatever their field and level of study is 30 ECTS credits per semester.

	LANGUAGES OF INSTRUCTION
Courses are taught in French, with some exceptions.
List of courses taught in English

	YOUR LEVEL OF FRENCH
You must have a minimum level of B1 French, B2 for Masters courses.
European self-assessment grid to estimate your level

Grading systems and attendance

Courses are organised into modules called Unités d'enseignement (UE).

Students are marked out of 20 points, with 0/20 being the worst mark and 20/20 the best. The minimum mark to pass an exam is 10/20.

Important

Undergraduate courses are assessed on the basis of continuous assessment only.

Attention

Attendance is compulsory. You may be absent a maximum of 3 times and these absences must be duly justified to your teacher.

For certain Master's level courses, replacement exams are possible, provided that you have taken the first exam or have a valid justification.

	ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW ON ECTS CREDITS
--	---

Open teaching units (UEO)

These courses do not give a numerical grade on 20. Only the corresponding ECTS credits are awarded in the event of a pass, and only the words Validated or Validated will appear on your transcript.

Not validated.

Each UEO is worth 2 ECTS credits.

Exchange students may choose a maximum of 2 UEOs per semester, i.e. 4 ECTS credits. One of these UEOs may be the UEO 'French for non-French-speaking students' (see French courses section), while the other may be chosen from the UEO Sport or UEO Culture.

Visa studies

European Economic Area

If you are a student from the European Economic Area, you do not need a visa, whatever the length of your stay.

Outside the European Economic Area

If you are a national of a country outside the European Economic Area, a study visa is required (to be requested from the French Consulate in your country) for any stay of more than 3 months.

If you live in a country in the European Economic Area and have a residence permit, a study visa is also compulsory.

Buddy system

International sponsorship is a personalised welcome scheme for foreign students on individual mobility or exchange programmes who have recently arrived in France. Avignon University.

During the first 2 months of their stay (September and October), the "buddies" welcome, accompany and guide the new international students to help them successfully integrate into their place of study and the city.

Free scheme

Volunteer work for the local buddies, free of charge for their international buddies.

Discovering other cultures

Opening up to other horizons, other cultures and sharing your experience.

Making friends

The buddy system is also an opportunity to meet new people
